Step 3

In the panel on the left side of your screen, click “Renew Your License, Permit or ID Card”.

Step 4

Please read the following criteria to renew online...

Note: If you are unable to renew your license online, you must renew at a BMV branch before the expiration date listed on your credential.

You may only renew a driver's license, learner's permit or ID card online if your previous renewal transaction was completed in a license branch.

You can renew your license or learner's permit online only if you meet the following conditions:

- You have a regular driver's license or learner's permit. Commercial driver's licenses cannot be renewed online.
- You are a citizen of the United States.
- There is no change in your name, address, or other information.
- Your license or learner's permit is not expired more than 180 days.
- You are within 24 months of your driver's license expiration date.
- You are within one month of your learner's permit expiration date.
- You require no testing or medical certifications.
- If you are under 18 years old, you have a financial liability co-signer on file with the BMV.
- You are under 75 years old, or you must have a vision exam on file with the BMV dated within the last 30 days.
- Your previous photo is on file.
- Your driver's license does not have restrictions J or 2-9. You may renew your learner's permit if you have a restriction J for driver's education. No other restriction J types are authorized.
- You are not suspended or invalidated.
- You do not have six or more points on your driver record.
- No points on your driver record, if you are under 21 years old.
- Do not have an Active Military indicator on your license or learner's permit.

You can renew your ID card online only if you meet the following conditions:

- You are a citizen of the United States.
- There is no change in your name, address, or other information.
- Your ID card is not expired more than 180 days.
- You are within 24 months of your renewal date.
- Your previous photo is on file.
- Your record does not have restrictions 3, 7 or 9.
- Do not have an Active Military indicator on your ID card.

Note: An individual eligible to vote in the next general, municipal, or special election will not be charged a fee for an ID card.

Step 5

Select the credential type you want to renew and click "Add To Cart".
